Workshop Overview:

This workshop will explore the dynamics and process of groups and teams, as well as different approaches to facilitating group supervision. Participants will have opportunity to identify approaches that best meet the needs of different groups, according to their level of development.

Topics:

Participants will engage in professional conversations, reflective activities and role plays as we address the following topics:

- Features of Group Supervision and Team Supervision
- Agreements, Guidelines and Feedback
- Approaches to Facilitating Group Supervision
- Techniques and Activities for Inclusive Group Supervision
- Group Stages and Processes

Your presenters: Jo Ablett and Cheryl Taylor have a solid foundation of supervisory training and experience gained over more than a decade of practice as Supervisors. They both hold a Masters Degree in Counselling, have completed a Certificate IV and a Graduate Diploma in Counselling Supervision and are registered Supervisors with ACA, AAOS, ACSA and PACFA. They are committed to supporting other Counsellors and Therapists in their journeys as Supervisors and to providing a safe space for Supervisors, Team Leaders, and those in supervisory roles, to reflect on and deepen their work.
